From the Minister

We have left Easter behind but its flavour and power should remain with us: for we are reminded of the permanence of the presence of Christ, through the Holy Spirit, with and among us.

Let me return to a well-worn theme in my preaching and life – the challenge to pray.

We concentrated on it at the beginning of the year but I wonder how much the challenge and message has sunk in to our experience?

Our On-Line Prayer Initiative will be up and running soon, and I am grateful to Vera Wilson for agreeing to take charge of this. Is there anything or anyone you want us to pray for?

Contact Vera on veewilson@btinternet.com or phone her on 01383 720250. There are Prayer Boards set up round the church – pop in early to church on a Sunday or on a Tuesday or Thursday when the café is on and either put up a prayer request or pray through some of the issues on the Boards - please use this. For Personal Prayers there is a prayer tree behind the Communion table – put your prayer requests there.

I cannot emphasise enough the important place that prayer should have in our lives. It connects us to the source of all that is good and powerful and is a ministry that we can all engage with. We are richer people for prayer and poorer people without it. Above all, pray that the Lord might revive our church and fill this place with young and old alike who are seeking God and finding the path of Life through Jesus.

Aye Yours,

Iain

FROM THE EDITOR.

Hello – and welcome to Spring – believe it or not as I sit writing this the sun is shining!! Not seen a lot of it lately but hopefully this could be the start. One bit of evidence that spring has arrived is the work that is being done on the church garden. Tom McIntosh has been busy preparing the ground and I note that “Robert” has offered to help out as well I am not sure who completes the team but well done to you all – Tom did say that it would be great if we could have some more volunteers – many hands make light work etc!!! If you can “lend a hand” do please contact Tom direct.

Lots of interesting articles in the magazine this month with lots of activities going on around the church. Great that we have a second café now running on a Tuesday so why not go along and sample the goodies –the “ladies” are doing a great job and helping raise funds for the church. It is a bit different to the Thursday café and well worth a visit.

Progress report from Alistair on the Youth and Family project and the new HUB downstairs is well worth a visit and you never know there could well be some activity there that you could join in. If not and you are keen for something to take place there – just give Ally a nudge – that’s him in the shorts!!! – and I am sure he will see what can be done.

JAM is as busy as ever and the work put in by the team is quite phenomenal and should be applauded. Isn’t it great to see so many of the children now coming along to Sunday Service – one of them recently offering the minister a bit of oatcake while he was delivering the “JAM” part of the Service!!

We did of course have the Baptism of Susi Greenshields in the Church and it was so good to see so many people attending with many of the Greenshields’ friends from Hope For China present. They all do a wonderful job taking responsibility for those girls and we are fortunate to witness this in real life with the three girls that are now part of the Greenshields’ Family – and our Family in Christ at St. Margaret’s.

It is very sad to report that we have lost a few of our well-known members over this last winter. I don't usually mention this in the magazine but with there being so many I thought it was well worth a mention and that our thoughts and prayers are both with the departed and their Families and that the love and peace of God will have helped them through these very sad times.

A plea from Tom McIntosh – yes he is a busy man!! The bowling club membership seems to have taken a slight drop in numbers and Tom is very keen to swell the throng! It is a real fun evening and the details are always in the OoS each Sunday. It does not matter a row of beans whether you are a real duffer, have never played before or someone who is good and can help the others improve their skills – it really is all about fun, companionship – and of course just a wee bit of competition! Thanks for all the contributions this time – Poet's corner has taken a lift and happy to see this continue. Something personal to you or something you just like and would want to pass on. Thanks again to the 39th Scouts for their inclusion – always appreciated and it would appear they are always busy!!

Ross Kerr (Ed)

REMEMBER – YOU ARE NOT ALONE

Susi's Baptism

A VERY WARM ST MARGARET'S WELCOME

to

SUSI

We have of course known Susi Greenshields now for quite a long time and have made her welcome in a “friendship” way!!

However, this was a very important day for Susi and the whole Greenshields family and many friends as Susi was welcomed into the church of Christ at her Baptism on 15th April.

The church was full and as we had the “café” format it all seemed very relaxed and informal – yet nothing can be more formal than a Baptism!!

Those at the Service now know what “welcome” is in Chinese – it was on the screen for all to see and was very appropriate, For those not there, here it is:

NI HAO

SUSI!

Many congratulations to Susi and may the good Lord care for her throughout her life.

*Update from Youth and Family Worker
Ally Greenshields*

It's that time again to provide an update on what has been going on in my new role as a Community and Development Worker within the church. It's been a long few months in which we can finally see the light at the end of the tunnel!

When we last spoke, the renovation of the downstairs hall was still a work in progress, but now I can thankfully say it is all finished.

The place needed a total renovation, from wiring and electrics, to painting and furnishing, and with the help from members of the congregation, a few favours, and not least a lot of funding from various sources, we have created a HUB at St Margaret's that I hope everyone can be proud of.

The HUB serves more of a purpose than to just look pretty and has seen quite a lot of uptake people within the community as well as the congregation. With the Council providing funding to be able to run two courses for the people of the area, with several other partners in place, looking to operate out of our church to encourage social change. I also want to encourage anyone in the congregation who wishes to use these facilities at any point, and for any reason, to please get in touch, as that's what it is there for.

Now on to the important part, the people. A lot of effort has been put in to increase the churches profile both within the community and as a charitable body, and I hope that people have started to see the very promising signs and enthusiasm starting to show through. While this may not necessarily be obvious from Sunday mornings a lot is going on behind the scenes.

Linda and Jim along with the rest of the JAM leadership continue to do a brilliant job, and it really is a pleasure to watch how they engage with the children.

The Tuesday café with Cheryl and Thorn has really started to take off, with a helping hand from their partners on a Thursday, with all the proceeds being re-invested back within the church. So if you can pop down on a Tuesday and help show our support.

Thursday café, as always, continues to put out excellent food and service with a smile (most of the time...) and what they do for the church both financially and for the people of the community really is something special.

Family night and Rosslyn continues to receive support, and are providing positive environments for the young families of Touch to be nurtured under the “roof” of the church.

The church facebook page is helping us to share the word of the church and encouraging more people to engage with us.

Finally, as of 11th May, the Youth Forum or Youth council of the church will be set up, which will allow the young people to have a voice and their ideas will be fed back to the Kirk Session at their next meeting.

So things are looking positive, and with the new faces popping through the door each week, for whatever reason, the church is starting to see some positive changes and engaging with people of the community who until now felt as though they had been forgotten.

All in all, plenty to get excited about. If anyone has any concern or would like more information about what is going on, please feel free to give me an email:

POET'S CORNER

From the clubhouse on the golf course
Looking out to Braefoot Bay,
See the sunshine on the water
Listen to the seals at play.

Watch those giant super-tankers
Moving slowly with the tide,
And the fussy, little tug-boats
On the port and starboard side

Feel the force of that south-western
Standing on the second tee,
Gusting up across the water
Stirring up the restless sea.

Looking at where the oyster - catchers
Paddle up and down the shore,
Looking for their lunch and dinner
On the ocean's sandy floor.

Walk where daffodils in spring – time
Stretch along that woodland road,
Where the woodpecker keeps calling
From the depths of his abode.

Listen to the foghorn sounding
Of some vessel on a trip,
Evoking echoes of the "Dutchman"
And his lonely, phantom ship.

Look at all the early snowdrops
And the wild flowers in the bud,
See the islands in the river
When the tide is on the flood.

Watch the swallows in the Autumn
Wheeling, darting, quick as light,
Assembling slowly in formation
Ready for their southern flight.

Safely anchored in the clubhouse
Golfers sit and sip their beer.
Through the passage of the season
Till the rainclouds disappear

Tell their tales and hold their inquests
Gazing out across the bay
Of that drive that was perfection
Of that putt that went astray.

(With many thanks to our resident Poet Ian Carlton. Ed)

The Housewife's Evening Prayer

By Godfrey Rust

I hope I'll go to heaven
But I'd like to know one thing:
In the father's many mansions
Who does the hoovering?

I'd love to join the feasting
And drink the Bridegroom's cup,
But could you reassure me
About the washing up?

Are the angels' haloes polished?
Do their tunics fit alright?
And do the little cherubs
Need a bottle in the night?

Of course, I'm sure that everything
We do there will be nice,
But "absolutely nothing"
Would make it paradise!

(thanks to Jeanette Clements!)

Light-hearted Graces

"For empty plate and well-filled tum,
Thank you, God and thank you, Mum."

*Lord, make us not like porridge –
Stiff and difficult to stir,
But more like cornflakes,
Crisp and ready to serve!*

J.A.M. Club Update

In the weeks since our last report, we have been continuing to place a firm focus on PRAYER. Many of our activities have been designed specifically to engage the children's interest and develop their understanding of prayer. We've explained the wonderful truth that Jesus is always available....anytime and anywhere. As leaders, we have given examples of times and places we have prayed-boys and girls love it when adults give examples from personal experience.

We have explained how things (which we regard as impossible) are no problem for our Lord. It's always good when we can capture everyone's interest quickly! We have discovered that our children are really "wowed" by scientific experiments....so, to introduce one lesson, we had the boys and girls throw pieces of tissue at balloons (which had been rubbed on our jerseys.) The children were amazed to see the tissue cling to the balloons! This was a good lead into discussion about the amazing powers of God.

Craft times continue to be enjoyed and a very popular activity was decorating a plain white mug, which contained a wee block of post-it notes and a new pen. Each child used Sharpies to create their own Prayer Mug to take home. Oh how we leaders loved the peace during this time!

A new initiative has been to introduce our weekly prayer whiteboard.

At the start of each session the children are asked for suggestions of people, events or situations for which they think our prayers are needed. We limit this to 3 topics, so that everyone has to really think carefully about their decisions. The suggested requests are later included in our end-of-meeting prayer when we gather again as one group. I'm happy to tell you that this is going well and is being taken very seriously by the children.

May I take this opportunity to say a huge "thank you" to everyone who so very generously contributed to our Easter Fayre. The amazing sum of £433 was raised! This support means such a lot to everyone at J.A.M. Club and there simply are no words which can sufficiently convey our gratitude...THANK YOU ALL!

I think the highlight of our time together so far this year has been the celebration of Easter. Some of you may know that I have been requesting egg cartons for the past year! Many thanks to all who dutifully ate eggs for breakfast, lunch and tea.....and yes, I know some of you felt you were sprouting feathers by the time we had sufficient boxes!!!

The point of the exercise was to provide each of our members with their own box of Resurrection eggs. This is a lovely way to remind us of the Easter story. 12 plastic eggs, each containing an object or picture, go in each box. For example, a small cube of bread was placed in the first one....a reminder of the Last Supper. My sincere thanks go to Marjory McIntosh who made wonderful "spears" and provided many objects to fill the eggs. Thanks also go to Helen Brown and Val Evans for their help in placing the items inside the eggs....all 25 boxes of them! I'm very happy to tell you that the children loved them and I have been told by parents that some boys and girls took their box to school for "Show and Tell" time.

Just before the school holidays, we had a service followed by a party....to celebrate Easter. Many parents and relatives joined us which made the event a happy, meaningful time for all of us. A particular highlight of the party was a visit from our very own "Professor Battie" alias John Thomson! (He is a scientist who does wonderful science experiments with us.) He bravely took part in a VERY Messy Challenge....see the J.A.M. Club noticeboard photos for evidence!

At the end of the evening, each child was given a Bible storybook or Christian-themed novel as a gift from St. Margaret's. The children also received a tub of sweets which of course contained an Easter egg....we're happy that our boys and girls now understand the connection between their chocolate egg and the Easter story.

So folks, a great deal has been happening in the past few months and we now look forward to enjoying sunny, bright days with our children. We hope to have a J.A.M. Club outing and this is currently under discussion. The new # READ area is up and running-please do enjoy using this facility if you are in church with a child; there are books to suit all ages.

Love and blessings to you all from everyone at J.A.M. Club

If you have been to a St Margaret's Christmas Celebration Concert in the past four years, you'll know what it is not just to hear but to experience a performance by the delightful Toccata.

This superb Ladies' Choir, based in Livingston, is celebrating its 40th anniversary in 2018 – starting in style at the Glasgow Music Festival this March by winning the Ladies' Choir Section, then going on to beat seven other choirs to win the Best in Festival Choir and the prestigious Glasgow Orpheus Choir Trophy.

Led by Musical Director Eleanor Howat, it boasts among its number our very own maestra of the keyboards, Heather Kelsall, and the musical talents and glamorous personality of Margaret Orr.

Haven't heard them yet? ... or can't wait till next Christmas to hear them again? Well, here's your chance –

Toccata 40th Anniversary Concert

Howden Park centre

Friday 11th and Saturday 12th May 2018 at 7.30pm

A WINNING TEAM

Great success for the Toccata choir who have almost become synonymous with St. Margaret's through their annual visit to us at Christmas. Those of you who've heard them will not be surprised to hear of this achievement - such is the quality of the singing and the undoubted talent of the Musical Director Eleanor Howat. Knowing the enthusiasm of Eleanor and the choir I can imagine the bus ride homed would be "rocking all over the place"!!

Many congratulations!!

(Ed)

THANK YOU

Sandy Pitblado and his Family would like to thank the congregation for the support, prayers and many cards that they received during the recent sudden loss of Margaret. They would also like to express their gratitude to Iain for the touching and personal service which was fitting tribute to a truly amazing lady. Thanks to you all.

Sandy Pitblado and Family.

A Huge Thank You

I would like to thank so many of my St. Margaret's friends for all their KINDNESS AND SUPPORT over the last three months. Thanks to all the visitors to Oakley – which Letty so enjoyed, as did Robert and I. Especially "Father Iain Greenshields". Thanks to all for the wonderful gallons of soup both to Oakley and Ronaldson Grove. Also the flowers, cards, shopping, dog walking and phone calls. A special thank you to all who attended the funeral.

Audrey McArthur.

Gift Aid Recovery 2017.

A total of £21,596.03 has been recovered from the Inland Revenue for 2017. Well done to all our tax payers.

Are you a tax payer and I have not signed you up? Please contact me in Church or on 728128.

We can claim gift aid on any of your donations or any item you purchase or donate to the Church (eg the flowers)

(NB) this total is higher than usual because of the many generous donations received for the roof.

Thanks – Audrey McArthur.

(and well done to Audrey for the work she puts in to claiming this fantastic figure. Ed)

DATES FOR YOUR DIARY

THE KINGDOM SINGERS.

Please note that the annual "Springtime serenade concerts" are being held Thursday 24th and Friday 25th May at 7.30 pm in Gillespie Church, Dunfermline. Tickets can be purchased at the door on the evening of the concert or by e mailing : kingdomsingers@live.co.uk.

( Ticket prices unknown as we go to print but always a great evening of song so do give yourself a treat – Ed)

MEN'S BREAKFAST

Please note that the last of the Men's Breakfasts for this session has now been completed with an excellent final discussion led by Iain Greenshields. A programme is already being worked on for next session which will probably commence in October. To those who have not attended any of these do please give it a thought for next session. It is a really good "get-together" for an exchange of views on a subject delivered by a speaker and then debated – although there is no need for you to contribute should you not feel you want to. It is informative and also good fun – and as for the breakfast – you don't know what you are missing!!! Thanks to Gordon for setting the programme up, thanks to all the speakers who attended and special thanks to chef Tom McIntosh and his willing helpers including Ian Grieve and Jim Greive (and sincere apologies if I have missed anyone out – Ed)

MID WEEK SERVICE

The minister is holding an evening service currently on a Wednesday evening commencing at 7.15 pm It last for approximately 45 minutes and the main focus of the talk is the book of James. A very relaxed service with great fellowship and information – why not join us – information intimated at church each Sunday and in OOS.

SUNDAY MORNING TEA/COFFEE ROTA

Note: People on door duty attend in the vestibule before the service. After the service one or two attend while the congregation leave. The others can go through the back and assist with the counting of the money. Anyone unable to undertake their duties, or any part thereof, should arrange a substitute.

We have decided to cut the numbers on the door and therefore you will have to see if a congregational member will be willing to take a bag for the collection.

THOSE ON DUTY IN THE VESTIBULE DURING THE SERVICE PLEASE NOTE THAT SILENCE MUST BE OBSERVED THOUGHOUT THE PERIOD OF THE SERVICE.
